as the return the said the second the recursion of the control of the control of t court in agreeing to the change of venue of causes No. 52.914 and 52.910 in the E.ev. each judicial district court to the district court of the court and the court having heard the sleadings and argument of coursed and only considered the same, it is hold, adjudged and decreed;

1. That there was no order or decree of the county court of Harris county violated by the applicant.

2. That the orders of the county judge of Harris county citing the applicant and adjudging him guity of contempt made in vagestion were without authority and not enforchic.

sufficients.

3. That if they were enforcible under proper state or facts the jurisdiction of the cases pending was wholly in the court of the Eleventh judicial district of Texas.

4. That to agree that the court of Eleventh judicial district might, in 7ts discretion, make an order, the applicant, acting under advice of coursel, could not be held in contempt of court.

in conjumpt of court.

5. That under the facts of this case the answer of the applicant under eath discislining any contempt was conclusive. For these reasons the applicant is discharged from gustedy. CITED TO APPEAR MARCH 2. Mr. Robertson was again cited by Judge Binke Dupree to appear before him in term time and show cause, if any he has, why he should not be held in contempt of the county court for the sliegal agreement against by him in agreeing to transfer the two cases pending in the district court of flarms county to the district court of Colorado county. The order cites Mr. Robertson to appear before Judge Dupree in the county court foom on March 2, 1985, at 10 o'clock.

TWO MOTIONS BY COUNTY JUDGE. Two motions were filed in the Eleventh district court by County Judge Diake Du-prec and R. G. Ashe, temporary siministrator of the William Donovant estate, through their attorneys. Rhodes & Mc-Gregor, praying that the orders entered in transferring the appeal cases of J. A. Harbert, A. M. Wangh, administrator, and Paul V. Gordon, who appealed from the ruling of County Judge Blake Dupree, from ruling of County Judge Blake Dupree, from the district court of this county to the district court of Colorado county.

They ask that the order made in the above cases on the lith day of February, 1933, at the instance of the above parties and Joseph A. Robertson, described in said order as admiristrator of the estate of Wilham Dunovant, sheetsee, chauging the cenne of the above cases to the district court of Colorado county be vacated. They mave the court instate its said order and recall the action by this court takes in this repard, and to order and direct the district clark of Colorado county to return the transcript of all proceedings had in these cases hereotores forwarded to him, to gether with all original papers in said cause.

For the following reasons: Recause this gether with all original papers in said cause.

For the following reasons: Because this court was wholly without authority in law to change the venue of this cause. And heranse the statute under which said perperied change of venue was made, article No. 1270. Sayles Rev. Civ. Statutes, has no applicability to a cause such as the one under consideration. Because no court other that of Harris county has purisdiction of the subject matter of this cause. And because the court was unisled in considering that Paul T. Gordon, J. A. Harbert and S. M. Waigh and Joseph A. Robertson were the only parties to this controversy, for the reason that every creditor of the ceased, is a purry to this appeal and, if all of them consecuted thereto, the transfer of this cause could not be made pursuant with law, Because the act of Joseph A. Robertson in consenting to said transfer were unauthorized and void. In this, the order appointing sair Robertson temporary all ministrator, giving ne such powers as taken from the minutes and records of the county court of Harris county.

Wherefore R. G. Ashe, temporary administrator by direction of Hon. Blake Dupret, county judge of Harris county, as related to said cause, moves that the action of the district court had in this cause he rescaled and set sails and the order heretofore made therein on February 11, 1988, be immediately recailed.
